BARRETT

Barrett- Barrat- Barratt- Baret

The name means: The little bear; the bright illustrious one; one with bear-might or power; dweller at the little barrier or gateway.

Old High German- beraht, bercht, berat- bright, illustrious.

Also Barraud, Barrouth- one with bear-might or power. Baret was the name of one who held lands as an under-tenant at the time of the Doomsday survey, 1086. One family called Barratt in England on the persecution of the French Protestants consequent upon the Revocation of the Edict of Nantes.

Guppy says Baraet was a personal name of Teutonic origin occurring in England in pre-Doomsday times.

is mention of 584 acres of excheated land, formerly granted to Margaret Barrett, dec.

James Barrett had a patent in 1692, but it was deserted by him and later taken up by William Barrett in 1705, (his son). (James City Bg. p 658)

Catherine Barrett had a grant of 400 acres in 1714 on the Chickahominy.

William Barrett listed on Rent Rolls of James City in 1704 for 305 acres.

In 1718 William Barrett was Church Warden of Wilmington Parish, James City County. (Hening)

From the preceding data the Barrett pedigree seems to run as follows:

1. William Barrett- warden of the London Company, 1610.
2. Thomas Barrett in Virginia 1621, established Barrett's Ferry. Had at least two sons, William and Francis.
3. William Barrett, Burgess and Councillor, and died before 1654. Margaret Barrett evidently his widow.
4. James Barrett was married ante 1677 to Mary White, and still living in 1692, when he patented land.
5. William Barrett takes up land that his father, James, patented in 1692 and deserted in 1705. He may have married Catherine who had a grant of 400 acres on the Chickahominy in 1714. He probably had a brother Charles who married Mary Chiswell. In 1716 Charles Chiswell of Hanover, in behalf of Mary Barrett, offered to undertake the keeping of the college table at the cost of £11 for each scholar per annum. She left two sons, Charles and Robert. Robert qualified as master of the Indian School at the college in 1737. He was minister of St. Martin's parish from 1754. Charles died 1771. (Va. Mag. Hist. & Biog. Vol. IV, p174)

6. Thomas Barrett was Petitioning in regard to a Bill for better regulating the Ferry in 1718.
(Wm. & Mary Quarterly Vol. XXI, p48)

Anything like a connected line ends here. There are fragmentary records of members of succeeding generations in various places. The records of James City County were destroyed long ago, with only two of the early books remaining. From the information they yield we find the Barrett family seated at the Ferry plantation, and at Barrett's Neck in James City. From there they spread to other parts of the State- Hanover, Louisa, Amherst, Goochland, Norfolk and Southampton.

It is the Southampton branch with which we are concerned.

BARRETT OF SOUTHAMPTON

1. John Barrett patented 100 acres of land in Isle of Wight County in 1727, in that part of the County which was cut-off to form Southampton in 1748. It is described in the patent as on the County line betwixt Nansemond and Isle of Wight.

Since the name does not appear on the 1704 tithable lists for Isle of Wight or for any of the adjoining counties, it seems reasonable to suppose that he came from the north side of the James River with the migration from the counties of Warwick, York and James City when the vast tracts of Indian lands were opened up on the Nottoway River.

There are no records in Isle of Wight County pertaining to John Barrett, but the Southampton records indicate that he left three sons- Edmund Jacob and William Barrett.

and line

2. Jacob Barrett, son of John, married Mary _____, and died in 1768.

In 1757 Jacob Barrett sold to Abram Matthews, for £10 plantation on S side of Cypress Swamp, 100 acres bounded by the County line betwixt Nansemond and Southampton Counties- granted to John Barrett by patent bearing date June 16, 1727. (Southampton Deed Book 2, p152)

He was survived by a son John Barrett who was living in 1786, and by a son Jacob Barrett, who with his wife Mary, sold land to his cousins, Jordan Barrett and Fenj. Barrett in 1799. (DB 9, p 116-117)

Jacob died in 1826, and his inventory is recorded in Will Book 10, p 94. He had a son Parker Parrett who married Susanna Turner in Nov. 1817; a daughter Elizabeth who married Elisha D. Britt in Feb. 1827, and possibly a son Jacob.

Parker and Susanna joined the migration to the south, and their descendants can probably be traced through North Carolina.

✓ Burwell Barrett, <sup>51</sup> son of Edmund (3) Barrett and Jennett, his wife, was born April 3, 1769, and married Lucy Thorp in 1788. Lucy was born November 16, 1761, and was the daughter of John Thorp (or Tharp) and Lucy, his wife. (These dates are from a transcript in the files of the late Flanche Admas Chapman, genealogist, apparently copied from a family Bible).

Burwell Barrett died in 1836, and in his will mentions his wife Eliza, who was apparently his second wife. His first wife, Lucy, was living as late as 1823. He is known to have had two sons by his first wife, Mills and Furwell Barrett, Jr., but they are not mentioned in his will.

✓ Burwell Barrett Sr. was the founder of one of the oldest Christian churches in Virginia, which was served by three generations of his family, and is still standing near Ivor.

5. ✓ Burwell Barrett Jr. was the second son of Burwell (4) Barrett and Lucy his wife.

A certified copy of his marriage bond in Sussex Co. states that he married Margaret D. Morris Feb. 13, 1821, which was two years after the birth of his son John Burwell Barrett III. John Burwell Barrett III states in his marriage bond that he is 45 years old in 1864, which establishes his birth date as 1819. And he also states that his parents were Burwell and Peggy Barrett. A possible explanation is that John Furwell Barrett III was a son by a first marriage- his mother dying soon after his birth. His father married Peggy Morris when John E. III was only two years old, so she was the only mother he ever knew, and it is natural that he named her as his mother on his marriage bond. However, no record has been found in Southampton to show that Burwell Jr. had a wife other than Peggy, or Margaret, Morris.

Margaret Morris is believed to have been the daughter of Nicholas and Charlotte Cooper Morris of Sussex Co.

✓ Burwell Barrett Jr. died in Southampton Co. in Oct- of 1822, leaving two small sons who were not mentioned in his will, but are named in a suit for division of land formerly belonging to their grandfather, Burwell Barrett Sr.

The two sons of Burwell Barrett Jr. were:

- ✓ 1. James Farrett
- ✓ 2. John Burwell Barrett ''''-born Feb. 3, 1819

A Word of Explanation--

The following records of James Madison Barrett and his family were not included in the work done by Mrs. Dashiell, as her research was completed before the James Barrett family became a part of the John Burwell Barrett reunion. Family records were used whenever available. Much information could not be obtained and there are discrepancies which cannot be explained, just as are found in records of any kind unless they can be authenticated by those found filed at court houses.

Mrs. J. Q. Hancock of Sedley, Virginia, granddaughter of James Madison Barrett and daughter of John Calhoun Barrett compiled the information concerning the family of her grandfather James Madison. The records were obtained from his Bible.

The genealogical line is carried out to the third generation, just as it is done with the J. B. Barrett III family- that is; James M. Barrett, his children and grandchildren. Further information concerning later generation members of the family can easily be gotten from people yet living, and can be added as desired.

James Madison Barrett, son of John Burwell Barrett, Jr., and brother of John Burwell Barrett III, was born November 18, 1821. He married Margaret J. Coker Barrett Dec. 15, 1844. Margaret J. Coker Barrett was born May 11, 1824, and died October 8, 1881. James M. Barrett died Fall-- 1897.

These two, James Madison Barrett and his wife Margaret J. Coker Barrett had the following children-- three sons and five daughters:

1. Joseph Henry Barrett b. Mar. 8, 1847- d. July 6, 1924
